Dear Jason,

I hope all is well and happy new semester.

It came to my attention that there is an approved accommodation request for Prof. Shaefer for this current academic year (please find attached).

When I signed this request in March 2021, I was under the impression that this request is for the summer 2021 session and I signed it accordingly. Unfortunately, I did not notice that the request was made for this current academic year.

Needless to say, no accommodation request for any academic staff/Faculty was approved (or was actually requested by any Faculty) for this academic year as we are operationally in-person. Thus, this accommodation request is thereby rescinded and Prof. Shaefer is expected to conduct her classes in person.

Thanks in advance and best wishes,

Tarek M. Sobh, Ph.D., P.E.

Supervisor's Recommendation(s) _____
Dr. Schaefer's requested accommodations are reasonable and should be granted; she has performed exceptionally well in the current academic year (2020-21) under similar accommodations. I see no reason that she cannot continue to perform well in the 2021-22 academic year.
